CyberDay.lu

12 October 2023

CyberDay.lu is an annual non-profit event organized since October 2018 in the frame of the European Cyber Security Month (ECSM) and under the umbrella of Cybersecurity Luxembourg.

General overview

- Registration: free of charge
- Topics: existing actual threats in the world of cybersecurity
- Targets: research & education community in Luxembourg, the general public
- Audience typology: academic, national education, private sector
- Location: Skip Pavilion, Esch/Belval, Luxembourg
- Attendance: in-person
- Duration: 4 hours
- Language: English

New location in Belval

The conference (under construction)

Structure
- A keynote speech (15min)
- 6 to 7 sessions of 25 minutes each (20min of talks + 5min Q&A)

Speakers typology
- Mainly national and recognised speakers in the field of cybersecurity
- European experts in the field offering outside perspective

Other information

- An event open to everyone interested, expert or not, and mandatory for some Luxembourg students as part of their high-course study.
- Participation as a speaker on a 'voluntary' basis, no speaker paid.
- No commercial promotion allowed neither by organizers nor speakers.

Previous editions key figures

2018
- 150 attendees
- 6 sessions
- 2 workshop sessions
- 3 exhibition stands

2019
- 80 attendees
- 6 sessions
- 4 exhibition stands

2020
- 100 attendees (20 live, 80 online)
- 6 sessions
- Exhibition area cancelled

2021
- 130 attendees (40 live, 90 online)
- 9 sessions
- Exhibition area cancelled

2022
- 90 attendees
- 60 live streaming views
- 7 sessions
- 6 exhibition stands

Hybrid events • COVID-19 closed scenario

Event website: www.cyberday.lu

CyberDay.lu is organized by the Restena Foundation with philosophy of free sharing of knowledge.

restena
réseau·sécurité·lu